

NEWS AND VIEWS

Pentecost: We are profoundly grateful to all who contributed towards our successful Pentecost celebrations: the Parish Office, the joint Choir, the Readers, the Stewards, the Sacristans, the Altar Servers and the Pentecost Volunteer Team. We thank our visitors, friends and all parishioners who graced the occasion. We are grateful to all who contributed in the collection to support the mission of the Holy Ghost Fathers worldwide.

Proposed Pilgrimage to Walsingham will take place on the 2nd of July. All interested should make their payments of £30 which will be heavily subsidised by the parish for it to be affordable. It will also be on a first come bases. For more information speak to anyone in the parish office.

First Holy Communion 2021/2022 diary dates: June 12th at 10.15am, Saturday 18th June Reconciliation & Rehearsal at 10am. Please enter through the parish car park. Sunday 19th June @ 11.30am Celebration of First Holy Communion.

Funeral Mass: Ann Josephine Colbert was a committed parishioner who volunteered herself to serve our parish in different capacities. She sadly passed away on the 19th of May, her funeral Mass will take place on Wednesday 15th June here in our parish at 12noon. Ann will sorely be missed by all who came across her. We continue to keep her family in our prayers. Eternal rest grant unto her and may perpetual light on her, may she rest in peace.

Breakfast Volunteer opportunity: We are appealing for volunteers who will be available any day of the week/weekend for our daily breakfast serving and most importantly can work within a team at our Outreach centre in Hatchard road. Any interested person/people can speak to the parish office and the priests for more clarity.

We wish those who celebrate their birthdays and anniversaries during this week a happy celebration

After ordering a milkshake, a man had to leave his seat in the restaurant to use the rest room. Since he didn't want anyone to take his shake, he took a paper napkin, wrote on it, "The world's strongest weight lifter," and left it under his glass. When he returned from making his pit stop, the glass was empty. Under it was a new napkin with a note that said "Thanks for the treat!" It was signed, "The world's fastest runner."

+ The Most Holy Trinity Year C 12th June 2022

We welcome all to today's Mass, especially visitors who are celebrating with us for the first time. Please take this bulletin home with you for further reflection on this week's celebration and to follow the activities in the Parish during the week.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

Reflection for Trinity Sunday Year C

Today is Holy Trinity Sunday. The term "Trinity" itself is not mentioned anywhere in the Bible. However, Christ instructed us: "Go into the world and baptize them, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). Hence, the Church teaches us that: "The divine persons are related to one another...the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another...because of that unity, the Father is wholly in the Son, and wholly in the Holy Spirit..." (CCC255). In the second reading, Paul tells us that: "The love of God is poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit." Christ is the fullness of God's love. From this, we have some insight about what this union of the three divine persons looks like. Each of them do their work, yet they remain one and undivided. Today's gospel makes this unity clear. Each and every one of them bears witness to the same word and truth. Each affirms and confirms the work of the other. They do not contradict one another. They are not separated by time or space, because their project is one and they share the same glory. There are many lessons to learn from today's solemnity. We must learn to remain united in faith. Today's celebration also reminds us that, although we are called to be united, each one of us is unique. This is expressed in the different modes of spirituality which exists in the Church. In spite of these, we are still united in the pursuit of God's kingdom. So, none should be deprived of his uniqueness. Therefore, as one united, "but not uniform people," we must continue to work for the progress of God's kingdom. We can live harmoniously together in this big family and universal Church of Christ without bursting the ego of others, or robbing them of their dignity and uniqueness. For us as human beings, conflicts are inevitable. However, when we confront them prayerfully as a united family, they help to strengthen our unity. So, if we must remain united, we cannot resolve our conflicts through hatreds, gossips, and unjust criticisms of one another. Finally, today we must learn from the three divine persons how to love and respect one another. This also means, complimenting and appreciating the efforts of one another. If we live in harmony as the Most Holy Trinity, then: "The greatness of the name of the Lord will be made known through all the earth" (Ps 8:2).

TODAY'S READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

OPENING PRAYER

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever..

FIRST READING (Proverbs 8:22-31)

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries and the waters will not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

RESPONSORIAL(Psalms 8:4-9)

R. How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

1 When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? R

2 Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand,

put all things under his feet. R

3 All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. R

SECOND READING (Romans 5:1-5)

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glorify be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL (John 16: 12-15)

Jesus said to his disciples:
'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Sanctify by the invocation of your name, we pray, O Lord our God, this oblation of our service, and by it make of us an eternal offering to you. Through Christ our Lord..

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Ab-ba, Father.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May receiving this Sacrament, O Lord our God, bring us health of body and soul, as we confess your eternal holy Trinity and undivided Unity. Through Christ our Lord.

The Prayer Of the Synod: Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

Attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), it has been traditionally used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. The version below was specifically designed for the Church's Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise You,

We bless You,

We adore you,

We glorify You,

We give You thanks for Your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, the almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son.

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world,

have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

You alone are the Lord.

You alone are the Most High. Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,

Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;

He descended into hell;

on the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God the Father

Almighty;

from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the Holy Catholic Church,

the communion of Saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and life everlasting. Amen.
